Tailored experience in Champagne

The secret of the Templars : between history and vineyards in Champagne

9:30 am – Meet with a specialist guide in the Côte des Bar vineyard. Enjoy breathtaking views over the Champagne vineyards from one of its most impressive vantage points. On this occasion, your guide will introduce you to the different grape varieties, traditions, and specificities of the region to give you all the keys to better understand and appreciate your stay in Champagne. → Duration : 45 mins
10:15 am – Discover the prestigious Drappier House located in Urville, one of the most recognized champagne houses. Dive into history through a tour of their centuries-old cellars, nearly nine centuries old, explore the richness of their flagship grape, Pinot Noir, and feel the genuine family spirit passed down through three actively involved generations. A unique experience that combines heritage, tradition and family passion. → Public visit → Tasting included (3 flutes) → Open Monday to Saturday (subject to availability)
12:15 pm – Nestled in Bar-sur-Aube, a town steeped in Cistercian and winemaking history, "Le Cellier" welcomes you for a unique culinary experience. This bistronomic restaurant offers traditional cuisine prepared with passion from fresh and local products, paying tribute to the Champagne terroir. → Reserved but not included in the price → Open Monday to Sunday except Wednesday (subject to availability)
2:15 pm – In the heart of the secret valleys of Colombé le Sec, where the silhouette of Charles de Gaulle seems to watch over the landscape, the Gothic columns of the Clairvaux monks' cellar reveal an ancestral winemaking tradition that began in 1194. Since then, the Calon-Egger family has continued the art of winemaking, transforming grape bunches into exceptional champagne that has spanned the centuries. → Public visit → Tasting included (2 flutes) → Open daily (subject to availability)
4:15 pm – Located in Bar-sur-Seine, the Commanderie d'Avalleur is a gem from the Templar era, rich with nearly 900 years of history. Given to the Order of the Temple before 1142, this unique commandery is one of the few French ensembles from that period that has stood the test of time. With its chapel, main building, and barns, Avalleur invites you on a journey through time. → Guided visit → Open Tuesday to Sunday from May 14 to October 6 (subject to availability)
5:30 pm – End of your tailor-made day in Champagne. 6:00 pm – Return to your Hotel La Maison de Rhodes.
